ROUND 8 RECAP

Round 8 meant two steps backwards and some bloodshed for the UC Capitals who experienced two losses in a double header weekend.

A four-point defeat to the Perth Lynx (84-88) was the more critical loss of Round 8 because it meant that the Caps missed an opportunity to secure the series split and steal that first-place spot from the Lynx who still reign as the league-leaders.

During the game, Kelsey Griffin took an elbow to the head from Asia Taylor which resulted in Griffin bleeding over her uniform and a trip to the hospital to get stitches. However, that didn't stop her from putting up 14 points and 14 rebounds.

The match against Adelaide (83-91) meant a fall to third on the ladder as the Boomers squeeze in front of the Caps.

In some good news, Kelly Wilson moved up to third on the list of all-time assists, totalling 1,804 over her 15-year career with the WNBL. Wilson made eight assists against Perth and 11 against Adelaide.

Now, the Caps will be focused on their first game against Bendigo Spirit, Kelsey Griffin's former team. Marianna Tolo has been given the all-clear for her season debut, and is itching to return to the court. This Sunday's game will be her first since tearing her ACL earlier this year.

At the beginning of the season, Tolo's return would have meant the end of Kaili McLaren's contract, scheduled to fly home to the US on December 6. However, after the big impression she's made on both the team and our fans, the UC Capitals announced that she will be staying on until the end of the season.

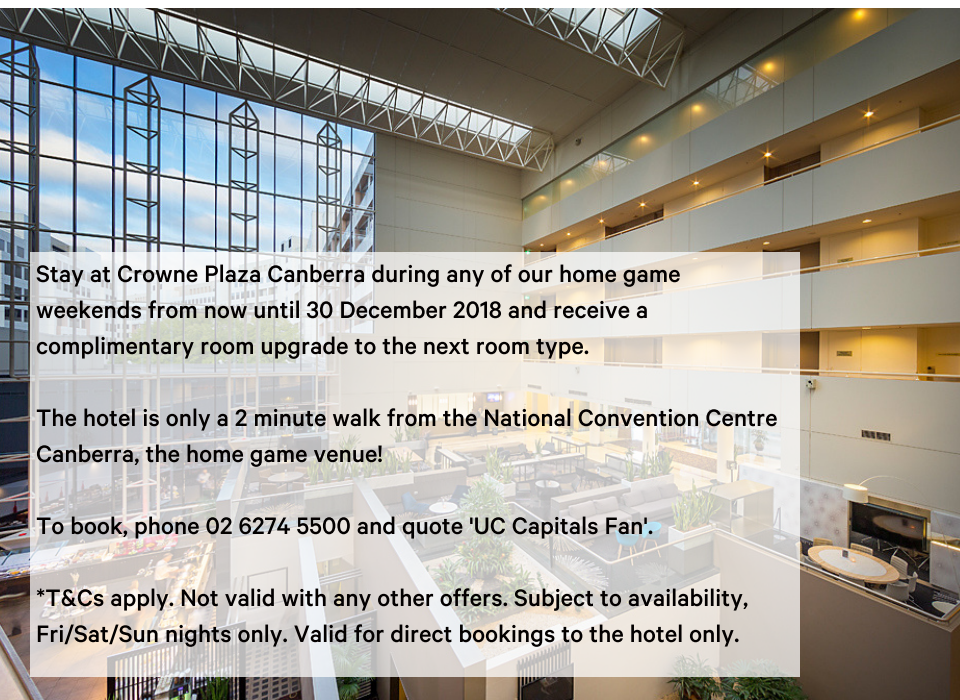

Stay at Crowne Plaza Canberra during any of our home game weekends from now until 30 December 2018 and receive a complimentary room upgrade to the next room type.

The hotel is only a 2 minute walk from the National Convention Centre Canberra, the home game venue!
