HEAD COACH

Guy Molloy is arguably the most experienced of all current WNBL coaches, with a coaching career dating back to 1989 where he coached the Canberra Capitals for one season. Molloy returned to WNBL coaching in 1993 in charge of the WAIS Breakers, taking them to the finals in each of his four seasons there. Molloy has since built upon his wealth of coaching experience as Head Coach of the Australian Under-17 Men's team, guiding the team to a silver medal finish at the 2012 FIBA Under 17 World Championships. He also coached the Victoria Metro U18 Men's team to three consecutive titles from 2007 to 2009. Molloy also completed a stint in the NBL as coach of the Cairns Taipans from 2001 to 2005, before commencing his current role as Head Coach of the Melbourne Boomers in 2013. Most recently Molloy has also been named the New Zealand National women's team head coach.
