

Basketball Australia By-Law: Awards

Lifetime Membership of WNBL

Basketball Australia is calling for Lifetime Membership of WNBL Nominations.

Information on Eligibility and Nomination

Please reference Basketball Australia By-Law: Awards

1.5 Lifetime Membership of WNBL:

- a) Lifetime membership of the WNBL is awarded for long and outstanding service to the competition and/or its organisation and operation.
- b) Any person (in the role of player, coach, referee, technical official, or administrator), who has given outstanding service to the WNBL over an extended period may be nominated and/or considered for Lifetime Membership of the league.
- c) Candidates for WNBL Lifetime Membership will be considered only on the basis of their contributions to, and achievements in, the WNBL competition.
- d) Candidates should have displayed the highest level performance and competitive spirit while making a significant, memorable, positive, commendable and lasting contribution to the WNBL.
- e) Consideration will be given in exceptional circumstances to players, coaches and referees who have not reached the required criteria.
- f) There shall be no limit on the number of people awarded WNBL Lifetime Membership in any one year, but the Basketball Australia Honours and Awards Commission may use its discretion in recommending to the BA Board how many awards will be made.
- g) Consideration for WNBL Lifetime Membership will be triggered automatically at 250 games for players and coaches or a combination of both, and 150 games for referees.
